

City of Spearfish

Code of Ethics and Conduct For Elected and Appointed Officials

*"Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest."
-- Mark Twain*

Policy Purpose

The Spearfish City Council adopts this Code of Ethics and Conduct to assure that each elected and appointed official conducts himself or herself in a manner that will instill public confidence and trust in the fair operation and integrity of Spearfish's City government.

A. ETHICS

- The citizens and businesses of Spearfish are entitled to have fair, ethical, and accountable local government.

Therefore, members of the City Council and of all Boards and Commissions shall conduct themselves in accordance with the following ethical standards:

1. Act in the Public Interest. Recognizing that stewardship of the public interest must be their primary concern, members will work for the common good of the people of Spearfish and not for any private or personal interest, and they will assure fair and equal treatment of all persons, claims and transactions coming before them.
2. Conduct their actions in accordance with law and policy. Members shall comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and City of Spearfish policies in the performance of their public duties.
3. Conduct of Members. The professional and personal conduct of members while exercising the duties of their office must be above reproach and avoid even the appearance of impropriety. Members shall refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character or motives of other members of Council, Boards and Commissions, the staff or public.
4. Respect for Process. Members shall perform their duties in accordance with the processes and rules of order established by the City Council.
5. Conduct at Public Meetings. Members shall prepare themselves for public issues; listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions before the body; and focus on the business at hand.
6. Decisions Based on Merit. Members shall base their decisions on the merits and substance of the matter at hand, rather than on unrelated considerations.
8. Conflict of Interest. All members shall identify and avoid conflicts of interest in accordance with the law.
9. Confidential Information. Members shall maintain the confidentiality of all written materials and verbal information provided to members which is confidential or privileged. Members shall neither disclose confidential or privileged information without proper legal authorization, nor use such information to advance their personal, financial or other private interests.

10. Use of Public Resources. Members shall not use public resources which are not available to the public in general (e.g., City staff time, equipment, supplies or facilities) for private gain or for personal purposes not otherwise authorized by law.

11. Representation of Private Interests. In keeping with their role as stewards of the public interest, members of Council shall not appear on behalf of the private interests of third parties before the Council or any Board, Commission or proceeding of the City, nor shall members of Boards and Commissions appear before their own bodies or before the Council on behalf of the private interests of third parties on matters related to the areas of service of their bodies.

12. Advocacy. Members shall represent the official policies or positions of the City Council, Board or Commission to the best of their ability when designated as delegates for this purpose. When presenting their individual opinions and positions, members shall explicitly state they do not represent their body or the City of Spearfish, nor will they allow the inference that they do. Councilmembers and Board and Commission members have the right to endorse candidates for all Council seats or other elected offices. It is inappropriate to mention or display endorsements during Council meetings, Board/Commission meetings, or other official City meetings.

13. Policy Role of Members. Members shall respect and adhere to the structure of Spearfish City government as outlined in the Spearfish City Code, organizational charts and job descriptions. In this structure, the City Council determines the policies of the City with the advice, information and analysis provided by City staff, Boards and Commissions, and the public. Except as provided by the City Code, members shall not interfere with the administrative functions of the City or the professional duties of City staff; nor shall they impair the ability of staff to implement Council policy decisions.

14. Independence of Boards and Commissions. Because of the value of the independent advice of Boards and Commissions to the public decision-making process, members of Council shall refrain from using their position to unduly influence the deliberations or outcomes of Board and Commission proceedings.

15. Positive Work Place Environment. Members shall support the maintenance of a positive and constructive work place environment for City employees and for citizens and businesses dealing with the City. Members shall recognize their special role in dealings with City employees to in no way create the perception of inappropriate direction to staff.

B. CONDUCT

The conduct policies are designed to describe the manner in which elected and appointed officials should treat one another, City staff, constituents, and others they come into contact with while representing the City of Spearfish.

1. Elected and Appointed Officials' Conduct with Each Other in Public Meetings

Elected and appointed officials are individuals with a wide variety of backgrounds, personalities, values, opinions, and goals. Despite this diversity, all have chosen to serve in public office in order to preserve and protect the present and the future of the community. In all cases, this common goal should be acknowledged even though individuals may not agree on every issue.

(a) Honor the role of the chair in maintaining order

It is the responsibility of the chair to keep the comments of members on track during public meetings. Members should honor efforts by the chair to focus discussion on current agenda items. If there is disagreement about the agenda or the chair's actions, those objections should be voiced politely and with reason, following procedures outlined in parliamentary procedure.

(b) Practice civility and decorum in discussions and debate

Difficult questions, tough challenges to a particular point of view, and criticism of ideas and information are legitimate elements of debate by a free democracy in action. Free debate does not require nor justify, however, public officials to make belligerent, personal, impertinent, slanderous, threatening, abusive, or disparaging comments.

(c) Avoid personal comments that could offend other members

If a member is personally offended by the remarks of another member, the offended member should make notes of the actual words used and call for a "point of personal privilege" that challenges the other member to justify or apologize for the language used. The chair will maintain control of this discussion.

(d) Demonstrate effective problem-solving approaches

Members have a public stage and have the responsibility to show how individuals with disparate points of view can find common ground and seek a compromise that benefits the community as a whole.

(e) Adding items to an agenda

Items will be placed on the City Council agenda for consideration upon the recommendation of the Legal, Finance, and Public Safety Committee or the Public Works Committee. Notwithstanding the failure of either Committee to recommend an item for the agenda, an item may be placed on the agenda at the direction of the Mayor, the City Administrator, or the concurrence of three Councilmembers.

2. Elected and Appointed Officials' Conduct with the Public in Public Meetings

Making the public feel welcome is an important part of the democratic process. No signs of partiality, prejudice or disrespect should be evident on the part of individual members toward an individual participating in a public forum. Every effort should be made to be fair and impartial in listening to public testimony.

(a) Be welcoming to speakers and treat them with care and gentleness.

While questions of clarification may be asked, the official's primary role during public testimony is to listen.

(b) Be fair and equitable in allocating public hearing time to individual speakers.

The chair will determine and announce limits on speakers at the start of the public hearing process.

(c) Practice active listening

It is disconcerting to speakers to have members not look at them when they are speaking. It is fine to look down at documents or to make notes, but reading for a long period of time or gazing around the room gives the appearance of disinterest. Members shall try to be conscious of facial expressions, and avoid those that could be interpreted as "smirking," disbelief, anger or boredom.

(d) Maintain an open mind

Members of the public deserve an opportunity to influence the thinking of elected and appointed officials.

(e) Ask for clarification, but avoid debate and argument with the public

Only the chair – not individual members – can interrupt a speaker during a presentation. However, a member can ask the chair for a point of order if the speaker is off the topic or exhibiting behavior or language the member finds disturbing.

(f) Conduct of Meetings

The chair shall preside over the meeting and keep order under the following guidelines:

(i) Members of the public addressing the Council shall do so from the podium with the permission of the chair.

(ii) Members of the public addressing the Council shall begin their remarks with their name and mailing address.

(iii) Belligerent, personal, impertinent, slanderous, threatening, abusive, or disparaging comments will not be tolerated.

(iv) No one in the Council Chambers shall be permitted to boo, cheer, clap, or otherwise make an audible response to any person's comments during a public meeting.

(v) The chair will determine and announce limits on speakers at the start of the public hearing process.

3. Elected and Appointed Officials' Conduct with City Staff

Governance of a City relies on the cooperative efforts of elected officials, who set policy, appointed officials who advise the elected, and City staff who implement and administer the Council's policies. Therefore, every effort should be made to be cooperative and show mutual respect for the contributions made by each individual for the good of the community.

(a) Treat all staff as professionals

Clear, honest communication that respects the abilities, experience, and dignity of each individual is expected. Poor behavior towards staff is not acceptable.

(b) Do not disrupt City staff from their jobs

Elected and appointed officials should not disrupt City staff while they are in meetings, on the phone, or engrossed in performing their job functions in order to have their individual needs met. Do not attend City staff meetings unless requested by staff – even if the elected or appointed official does not say anything, his or her presence may imply support, show partiality, intimidate staff, or hampers staff's ability to do their job objectively.

(c) Never publicly criticize an individual employee

Elected and appointed officials should never express concerns about the performance of a City employee in public, to the employee directly, or to the employee's manager. Comments about staff performance should only be made to the City Administrator through private correspondence or conversation. Appointed officials should make their comments regarding staff to the City Administrator or the Mayor.

(d) Do not get involved in administrative functions

Elected and appointed officials acting in their individual capacity must not attempt to influence City staff on the making of appointments, awarding of contracts, selecting of consultants, processing of development applications, or granting of City licenses and permits.

(e) Do not solicit political support from staff

Elected and appointed officials should not solicit any type of political support (financial contributions, display of posters or lawn signs, name on support list, etc.) from City staff. City staff may, as private citizens with constitutional rights, support political candidates but all such activities must be done away from the workplace.

(f) No Attorney-Client Relationship

Members shall not seek to establish an attorney-client relationship with the City Attorney, including his or her staff and attorneys contracted to work on behalf of the City. The City Attorney represents the City and not individual members. Members who consult with the City Attorney cannot enjoy or establish an attorney-client relationship with the attorney.

4. Council Conduct with Boards and Commissions

The City has established several Boards and Commissions as a means of gathering more community input. Citizens who serve on Boards and Commissions become more involved in government and serve as advisors to the City Council. They are a valuable resource to the City's leadership and should be treated with appreciation and respect.

(a) If attending a Board or Commission meeting, be careful to only express personal opinions

Councilmembers may attend any Board or Commission meeting, which are always open to any member of the public. However, they should be sensitive to the way their participation— could be viewed as unfairly affecting the process. Any public comments by a Councilmember at a Board or Commission meeting should be clearly made as individual opinion and not a representation of the feelings of the entire City Council.

(b) Limit contact with Board and Commission members to questions of clarification

It is inappropriate for a Councilmember to contact a Board or Commission member to advocate for or against an issue before that Board or Commission. It is acceptable for Councilmembers to contact Board or Commission members in order to clarify a position taken by the Board or Commission.

(c) Respect that Boards and Commissions serve the community, not individual Councilmembers

The Mayor and City Council appoint individuals to serve on Boards and Commissions, and it is the responsibility of Boards and Commissions to follow policy established by the Council.

But Board and Commission members do not report to individual Councilmembers, nor should Councilmembers feel they have the power or right to threaten Board and Commission members with removal if they disagree about an issue. Appointment and re-appointment to a Board or Commission should be based on such criteria as expertise, ability to work with staff and the public, and commitment to fulfilling official duties. A Board or Commission appointment should not be used as a political "reward."

(d) Be respectful of diverse opinions

A primary role of Boards and Commissions is to represent many points of view in the community and to provide the Council with advice based on a full spectrum of concerns and perspectives. Councilmembers may have a closer working relationship with some individuals serving on Boards and Commissions, but must be fair and respectful of all citizens serving on Boards and Commissions.

(e) Keep political support away from public forums

Board and Commission members may offer political support to a Councilmember, but not in a public forum while conducting official duties. Conversely, Councilmembers may support Board and Commission members who are running for office, but not in an official forum in their capacity as a Councilmember.

C. SANCTIONS

(1) Acknowledgement of Code of Ethics and Conduct

Councilmembers who do not sign an acknowledgement that they have read and understand the Code of Ethics and Conduct may be subject to discipline and shall be ineligible for intergovernmental assignments or Council subcommittees. Board and Commission members who do not sign an acknowledgement that they have read and understand the Code of Ethics and Conduct are not eligible to hold office.

(2) Behavior and Conduct

The Spearfish Code of Ethics and Conduct expresses standards of ethical conduct expected for members of the Spearfish City Council, Boards and Commissions. Members themselves have the primary responsibility to assure that ethical standards are understood and met, and that the public can continue to have full confidence in the integrity of government. The chairs of Boards and Commissions and the Mayor and Council have the additional responsibility to intervene when actions of members that appear to be in violation of the Code of Ethics and Conduct are brought to their attention.

(i) Councilmembers:

Councilmembers who do not follow proper conduct may be reprimanded or formally censured by the Council, lose committee assignments (both within the City of Spearfish and with intergovernmental agencies) or other privileges afforded by the Council. Serious infractions of the Code of Ethics or Code of Conduct could lead to other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Council, including removal from office.

Individual Councilmembers should point out to the offending Councilmember perceived infractions of the Code of Ethics and Conduct. If the offenses continue, then the matter should be referred to the Mayor in private. If the Mayor is the individual whose actions are being questioned, then the matter should be referred to the Council President. It is the responsibility of the Mayor (or Council President) to initiate action if a Councilmember's behavior may warrant sanction. If no action is taken by the Mayor (or Council President), then the alleged violation(s) may be brought up with the full Council.

(ii) Board and Commission Members:

Counseling, verbal reprimands and written warnings may be administered by the Mayor to Board and Commission members failing to comply with City policy. These lower levels of sanctions shall be kept private to the degree allowed by law. Copies of all written reprimands administered by the Mayor shall be distributed in memo format to the chair of the respective Board or Commission, the City Attorney, the City Administrator, and the City Council.

The Mayor and City Council may impose sanctions on Board and Commission members whose conduct does not comply with the City's policies, up to and including removal from office. Any form of discipline imposed by City Council shall be determined by a majority vote of at least a quorum of the Council at a noticed public meeting and such action shall be preceded by a Report to City Council with supporting documentation.

When deemed warranted, the Mayor or majority of Council may call for an investigation of Board or Commission member conduct. Also, should the City Administrator or City Attorney believe an investigation is warranted, they shall confer with the Mayor or Council. The Mayor or Council shall ask the City Administrator or the City Attorney to investigate the allegation and report the findings.

These sanctions are alternatives to any other remedy that might otherwise be available to remedy conduct that violates this code or state or federal law. In order to protect and preserve good government, any individual including the City Administrator and the City Attorney, who knows or reasonably believes a member acts or intends or refuses to act in a manner that is or may be a violation of law reasonably imputable to the organization, or in a manner which is likely to result in substantial injury to the organization, may report the violation to the appropriate governmental authorities.

D. IMPLEMENTATION

The Code of Ethics and Conduct is intended to be self-enforcing and is an expression of the standards of conduct for members expected by the City. It therefore becomes most effective when members are thoroughly familiar with it and embrace its provisions.

For this reason, this document shall be included in the regular orientations for candidates for City Council, City Administrator, City Attorney, applicants to Board and Commissions, and newly elected and appointed officials. Members entering office shall sign a statement (example below) acknowledging they have read and understand the Code of Ethics and Conduct. In addition, the Code of Ethics and Conduct shall be periodically reviewed by the City Council, Boards and Commissions, and updated it as necessary.